We Are Happy to Announce

The Third, Revised Edition of

WHO SHALL SURVIVE?

Containing a supplement of over one hundred pages
on the evaluation of old and new sociometric literature from 1923-1955.

READY FEBRUARY 1955

This book . . . "marked the birth of sociometry in America. The 1953 book is a systematic summary of the accomplishments of sociometry, group psychotherapy, and sociodrama as these are viewed by the mind of Moreno. . . . This book will be an essential encyclopedia for all future workers in this area."

From the review by Mary L. Northway in Canadian Journal of Psychology, September, 1954.

Approximately 1000 pages
